For Immediate Release

Deadline Nears for City of Gaithersburg Housing Survey

Gaithersburg, MD (April 5, 2022) The City of Gaithersburg has started the development of a new Housing Element within the City's Master Plan that will outline goals and recommendations to address future housing needs, including workforce, low-income and other affordable housing options.

Your input will help shape how the Housing Element is focused and what recommendations will be made. Explore background materials and take the surveys here. Surveys will be open through Friday, April 8.

As the City moves through the various stages of the Master Plan Amendment process, updates will be made on a regular basis and more engagement opportunities will be available. Please e-mail questions and comments to housingmp@gaithersburgmd.gov.
